

When The Colleges Come Calling

NCAA College Recruiting: What Happens and How It Works

Thursday, October 13
5:30 pm — 7:30 pm

SUNY Albany East Campus
Massry Conference Center

Workshop Goals:

This workshop will provide families, coaches, and school administrators with the following :

- Understand the entire recruiting process at all levels
- Review NCAA eligibility, academic requirements, dates and deadlines
- Learn about scholarships, financial assistance visitations and letters of intent
- Share strategies on how coaches and school administrators can assist in the process
- Receive first hand experience from an athlete and family who have navigated the recruiting process
- Answer questions about the recruiting process

For high school athletes and their parents interested in competing at the college level, being recruited can be a very daunting process from getting noticed to understanding recruitment procedures. This workshop will provide parents, students, coaches and school administrators with important information from leading experts on how college recruiting works for all students and help families navigate the complex recruiting process to ensure a rewarding experience.

Presenters:

Bob Stulmaker (Moderator)

Former Assistant Director at New York State Public High School Athletic Association/Former Director of Physical Education, Athletics and Health in the Saratoga Springs City School District

Pierce Mahar

*Certified College Planning Specialist (CCPS)
President, Education Funding Specialists*

John Gallo

Director of Athletics, Schalmont School District

Plus a current student athlete familiar with the recruiting process TBA.

Cost: $25 per person (or for a family), includes refreshments

Open to students, parents, families, coaches, guidance counselors, school administrators and athletic directors.

Register online at:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/collegescomecalling2016>

