

*Berlin High School
Artist of the Month Award*

Berlin

CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

The “Artist of the Month” award is a High School level award for our most dedicated students in The Visual Arts.

These students are often the most academically successful because of great effort on their pieces and devotion to their craft.

The September Artist of the Month is.....

Josephine Cummings!

(Grade 11)

Josie is in AP 2D Design, Intermediate Studio and Graphic Design this year and is rocking it in all of them! Never shying away from experimentation and pushing her creativity, Josie is an art student who is constantly working at her craft. With an eye for detail and form, her pieces are always top quality. We look forward to what she will create next. Congratulations Josie!

The October Artist of the Month is.....

Danny Rivera!

(Grade 12)

Active National Art Honor Society President, Danny is in Intermediate Studio and Painting classes this year and is making some amazing work so far! Danny consistently asks for feedback, working diligently each class period, as well as free periods and afterschool too. His skills have come far over the past few years, due to his dedication to craftsmanship and improving his artistic practice. Congratulations Danny!

The November Artist of the Month is....

Abigail Thela!

(Grade 11)

Abby has a unique, whimsical style and takes to new material intuitively. Her artwork has confidence that is evident in her approach and craftsmanship. While Abby speaks softly, she advocates and champions for her peers. She is always smiling and kind.

Congratulations Abby!

The December Artist of the Month is....

Curtis Hurd!

(Grade 10)

Curtis is a natural leader who is always friendly and helpful in the art studios, as well as an active participant in NAHS, Yearbook and Art Club. When creating, Curtis goes with the flow and embraces risks, discovering hidden talents while experimenting. It is clear that he enjoys the process of making art! Congratulations Curtis!

The January Artist of the Month is.....

Rebecca Moore!

(Grade 11)

Rebecca is the epitome of a working artist. She can always be found with her head in her sketchbook tirelessly working on her ideas. As an AP: 2D Design student, Rebecca is developing a portfolio showcasing her unique style and impeccable craftsmanship. We are proud of her for inching her way out of her comfort zone this year! Congratulations Becca!
