

*Berlin High School
Artist of the Month Award*

Berlin

CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

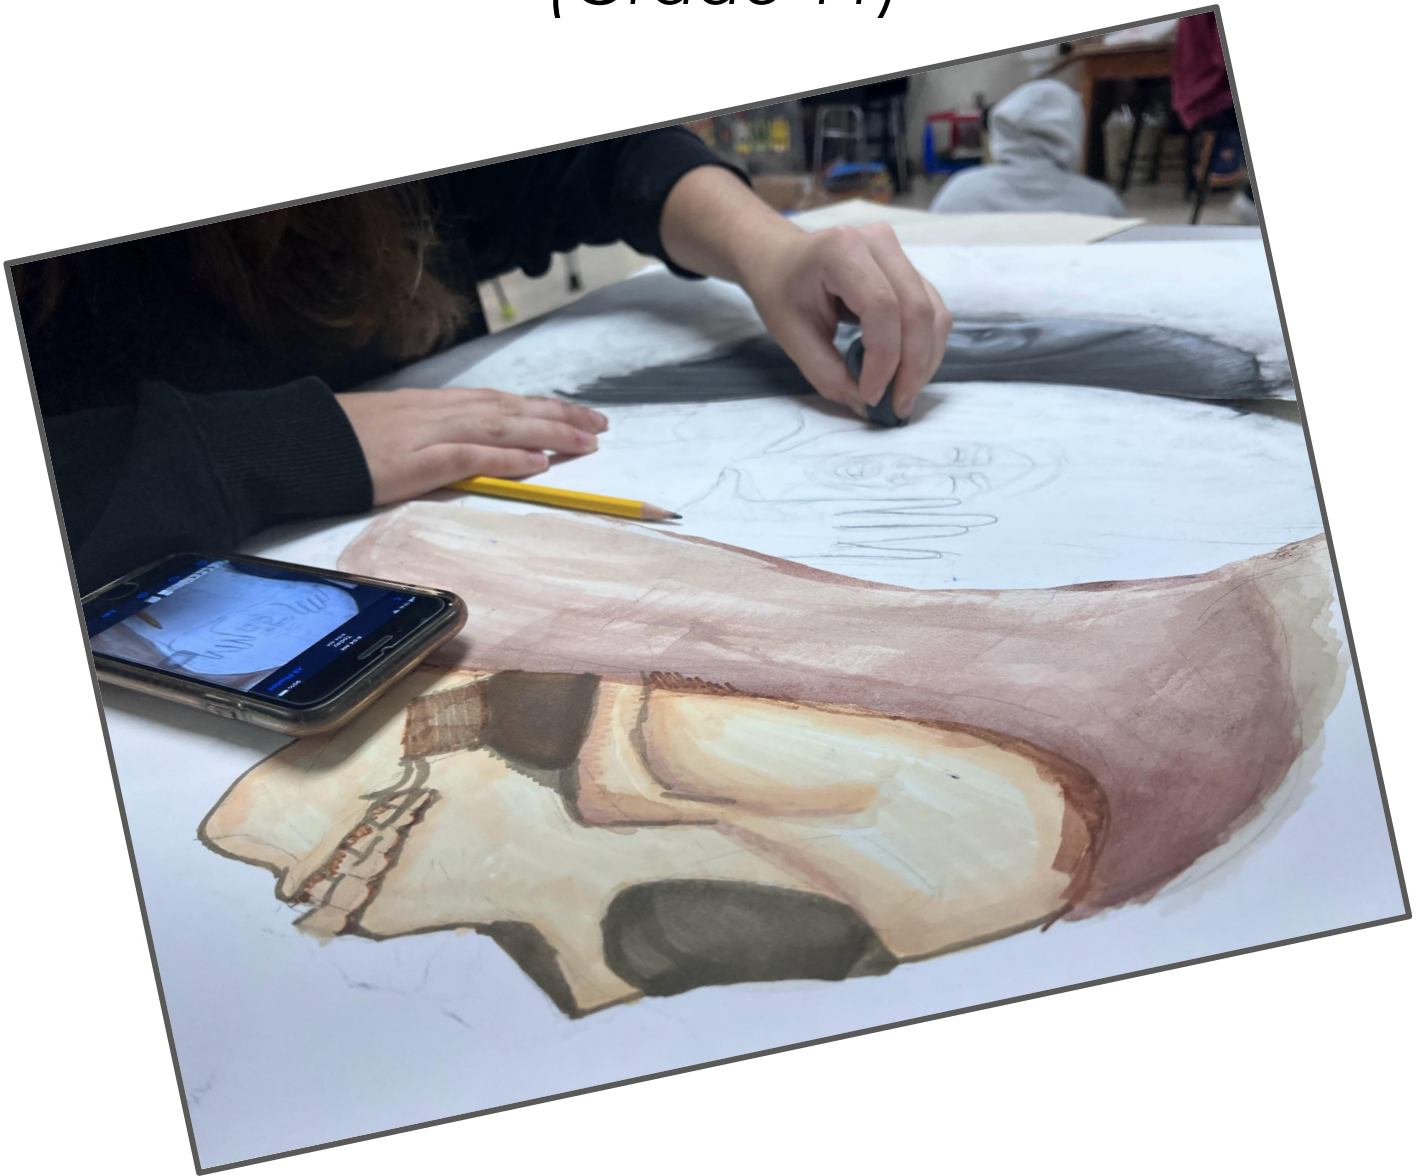

The “Artist of the Month” award is a High School level award for our most dedicated students in The Visual Arts.

These students are often the most academically successful because of great effort on their pieces and devotion to their craft.

The September Artist of the Month is....

Josephine Cummings!

(Grade 11)

Josie is in AP 2D Design, Intermediate Studio and Graphic Design this year and is rocking it in all of them! Never shying away from experimentation and pushing her creativity, Josie is an art student who is constantly working at her craft. With an eye for detail and form, her pieces are always top quality. We look forward to what she will create next. Congratulations Josie!

The October Artist of the Month is.....

Danny Rivera!

(Grade 12)

Active National Art Honor Society President, Danny is in Intermediate Studio and Painting classes this year and is making some amazing work so far! Danny consistently asks for feedback, working diligently each class period, as well as free periods and afterschool too. His skills have come far over the past few years, due to his dedication to craftsmanship and improving his artistic practice. Congratulations Danny!

The November Artist of the Month is....

Abigail Thela!

(Grade 11)

Abby has a unique, whimsical style and takes to new material intuitively. Her artwork has confidence that is evident in her approach and craftsmanship. While Abby speaks softly, she advocates and champions for her peers. She is always smiling and kind.

Congratulations Abby!

The December Artist of the Month is....

Curtis Hurd!

(Grade 10)

Curtis is a natural leader who is always friendly and helpful in the art studios, as well as an active participant in NAHS, Yearbook and Art Club. When creating, Curtis goes with the flow and embraces risks, discovering hidden talents while experimenting. It is clear that he enjoys the process of making art! Congratulations Curtis!

The January Artist of the Month is.....

Rebecca Moore!

(Grade 11)

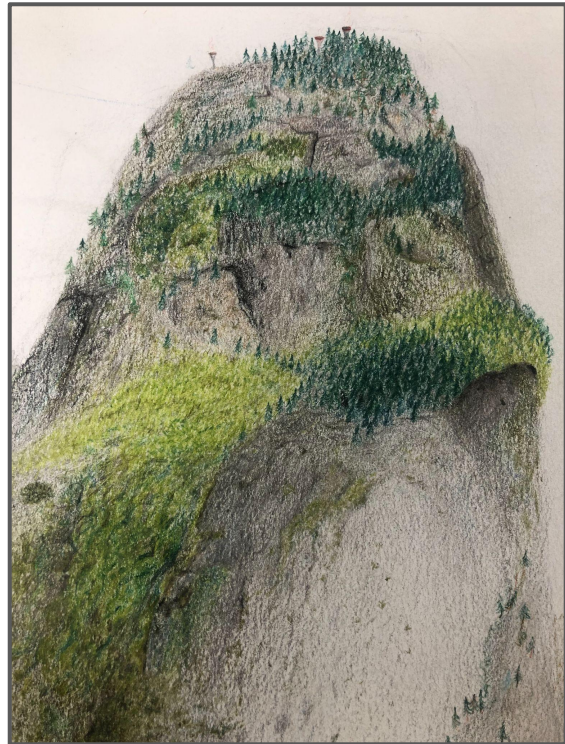

Rebecca is the epitome of a working artist. She can always be found with her head in her sketchbook tirelessly working on her ideas. As an AP: 2D Design student, Rebecca is developing a portfolio showcasing her unique style and impeccable craftsmanship. We are proud of her for inching her way out of her comfort zone this year! Congratulations Becca!

The February Artist of the Month is.....

Vivian Whelan!

(Grade 11)

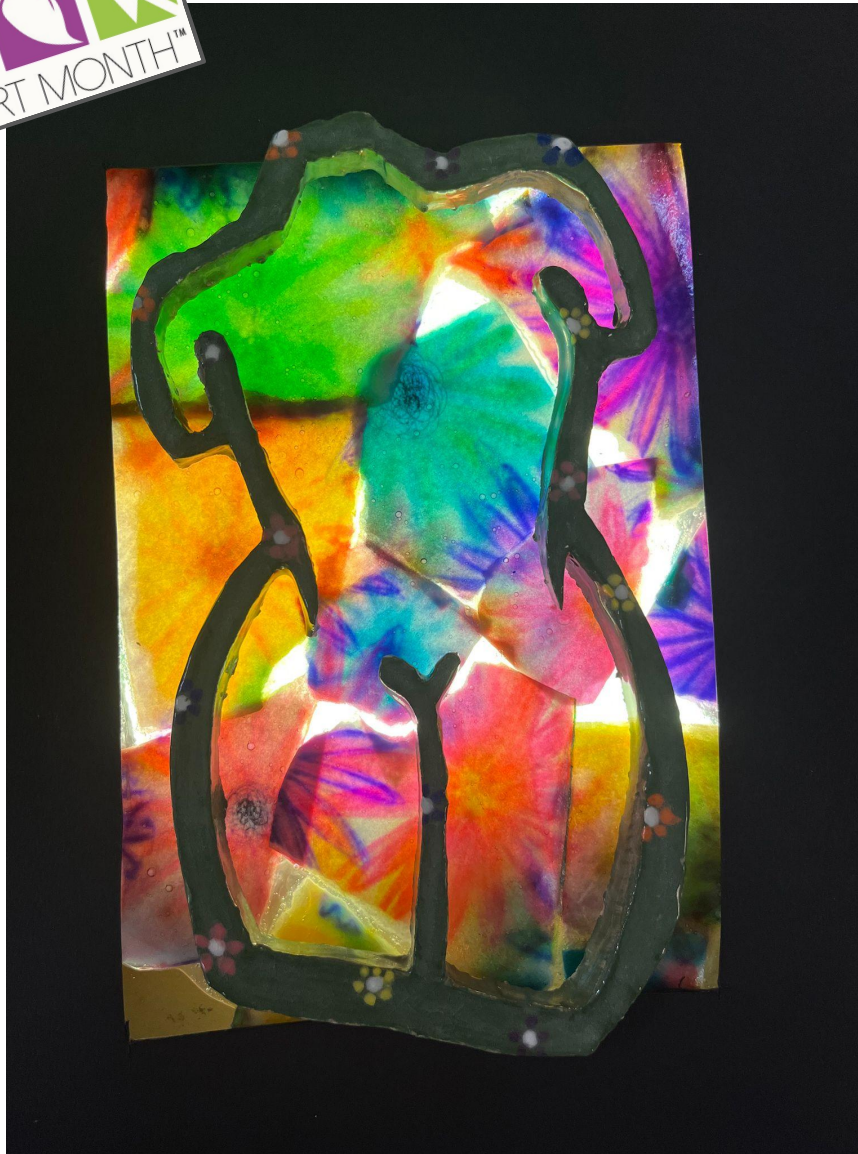

Vivian's craftsmanship in her Ceramic and Drawing pieces this year are unmatched. She pays such careful attention to detail and asks great questions, resulting in some fabulously skilled work. Always a respectful and responsible student, she's just a pleasure to teach as well.

Congratulations Viv!

The March Artist of the Month #1 is.....

Ashlee Evans!

(Grade 11)

Ashlee is in the AP: 2D Design course this year working diligently on her portfolio. Along with the themes of body image and women's studies, she's exploring various art elements and layering. Ashlee just keeps working each day, asking good questions and pushing herself to create quality work. Congratulations Ash!

The March Artist of the Month #2 is.....

Ethan Saunders!

(Grade 11)

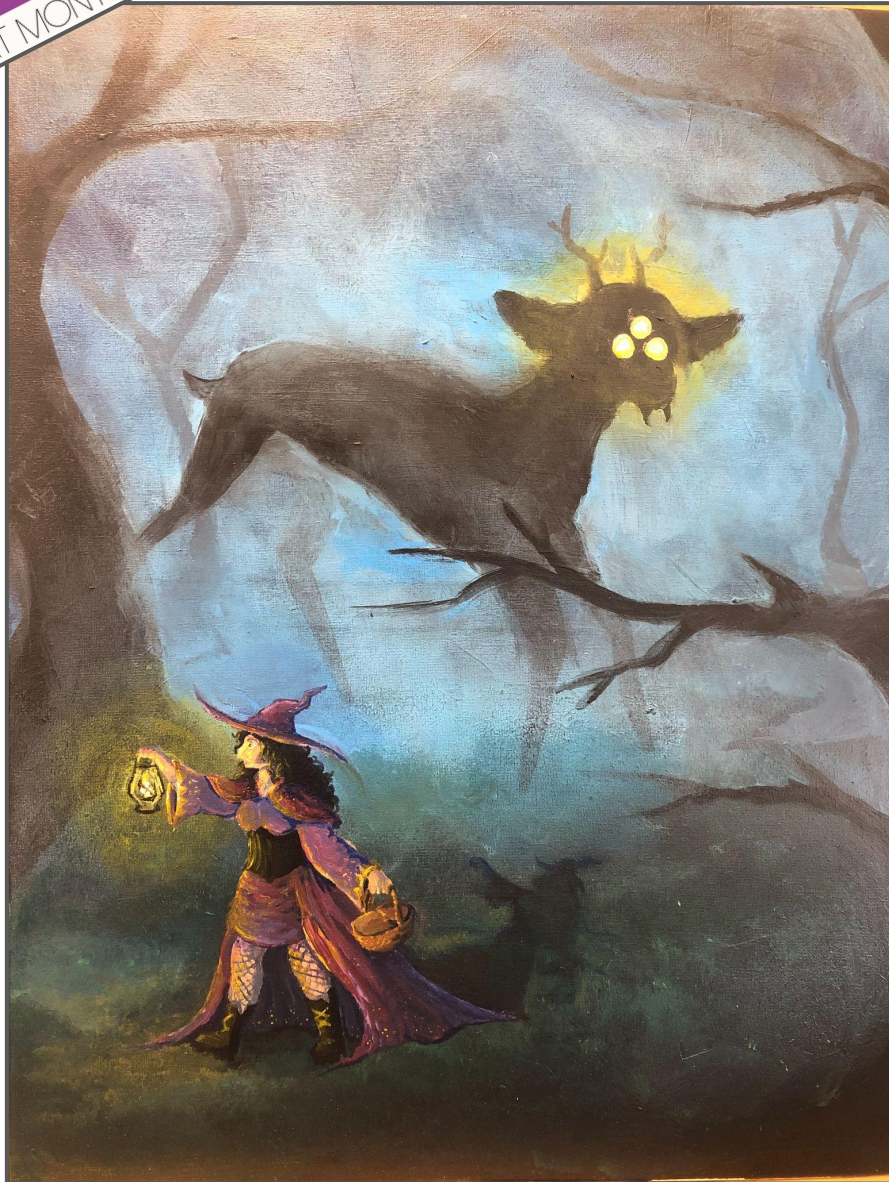

Ethan is in the Intermediate Studio course this year, but only every other day, and still has come away with fantastic work. Ethan's signature style is recognizable anywhere. Even when faced with setbacks, he is like the Energizer Bunny of artists - he just keeps creating!

Congratulations Ethan!

The March Artist of the Month #3 is.....

Jayli Capasso!

(Grade 10)

Jayli is in the Intermediate Studio course this year, only every other day, but already has 2 fantastic paintings under her belt! When in class, Jayli is focused all period, determined to get all her details in, which yields successful pieces. Congratulations Jayli!

The March Artist of the Month #4 is.....

Annie Weeden!

(Grade 12)

Annie is in Intermediate Studio and is a self-motivated, multi-talented artist. Annie comes to class ready to create, with a constant rolodex of ideas to choose from that are full of deeper meanings. Congratulations Annie!

The March Artist of the Month #5 is.....

Lilley DeClair!

(Grade 10)

Lilley is doubling up in Studio Art and Sculpture class this year. She is a responsible, hardworking artist who always tries her very best, asking great questions for feedback along the way.

Congratulations Lilley!

The April Artist of the Month is.....

Isabella Berrios!

(Grade 11)

Bella is a hardworking artist in her Intermediate Studio course. Her technical skill in her work is advanced and she always brings creative, expressive ideas to her pieces. Bella's work was entered and accepted into not one, but two, of our annual contests this year: The HS Juried Regional and the Questar III High School Invitational Art Exhibit.

Congratulations Bella!
