Early Intervention to Preschool Special Education Transition for Families

This workshop will guide parents through the Early Intervention to Preschool Special Education transition in New York State. The session will identify the important steps in the process, changes to expect, and critical decisions to be made. The session will take a detailed look at the similarities and differences between the Early Intervention Program and the Preschool Special Education Program. Parents participating in this workshop will be well prepared for the transition and have a better understanding of their role in the process.
