Tuesday, March 26, 2024 @ 10:00am - 12:00pm AGENCY 101: CONNECTING INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES TO ADULT SERVICES

This overview of primary adult services is meant to increase participants' ability to assist children, students, and families with appropriate, available referral options and processes. In addition, the components that comprise self-determination and resources to aid in the promotion of self-determination throughout the transition planning process will be covered. To register, visit <https://conta.cc/49Ni9Zk> or scan the QR Code to the right.

Monday, April 8, 2024 @ 1:00pm - 3:00pm FAMILY GUIDE TO TRANSITION PLANNING: PREPARING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES FOR LIFE AFTER HIGH SCHOOL

The purpose of the Family Guide to Transition Planning—Preparing Students with Disabilities for Life After High School is to assist families in understanding the transition planning process specifically from high school to life after high school. When families are knowledgeable about the transition process, they are better prepared and able to participate in the planning process. As a result, students with disabilities experience improved post-school outcomes in the areas of employment, postsecondary education, and independent living.
